Landing Page

The screenshot shows a landing page for TripExcess. The background features a blue semi-truck on a road under a blue sky with clouds. The page layout includes a dark blue header with the TripExcess logo on the left and navigation links (Home, API/Bulk, Report a Claim, Help Center, About/FAQs) and user options (Sign Up, Login) on the right. The main content area has a large heading: "Redefining Excess Liability Insurance for Motor Carriers one shipment at a time". Below the heading, it lists coverage details: "Up to $2,000,000 Excess Auto & Excess General Liability Coverage" and "Up To $1,000,000 Excess Cargo Liability Coverage". A form is positioned on the left side of the page, containing fields for "Pick-up Location" and "Delivery Location" (both labeled "City name"), and a "Choose Type(s) of Coverage" section. This section has two options: "Excess General Liability & Excess Auto Liability" (selected) and "Excess Cargo". Each option has dropdown menus for "Each Occurrence Limit" and "Retained Amount". The "Excess General Liability & Excess Auto Liability" option shows a value of "$1,000,000" for the retained amount. A blue "Get Price" button is located at the bottom of the form.

Accept Fraud Warning

The screenshot shows the TripExcess website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the TripExcess logo on the left and links for Home, API/Bulk, Report a Claim, Help Center, and About/FAQs in the center. On the right side of the navigation bar, there is a shopping cart icon with the number '2' and a user profile icon labeled 'Stef'.

The main content area features a 'Fraud Warning' section. It begins with the heading 'Fraud Warning' and a sub-heading 'Please read and click accept at the bottom to acknowledge and agree to the conditions.' Below this, there is a scrollable text area containing the following information:

- A line of text: 'misleading information is guilty of a felony.'
- Applicable in Washington
It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines and denial of insurance benefits.
- Default Fraud Notice (Used for all other residents)
Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or a statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto may be guilty of committing a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime.

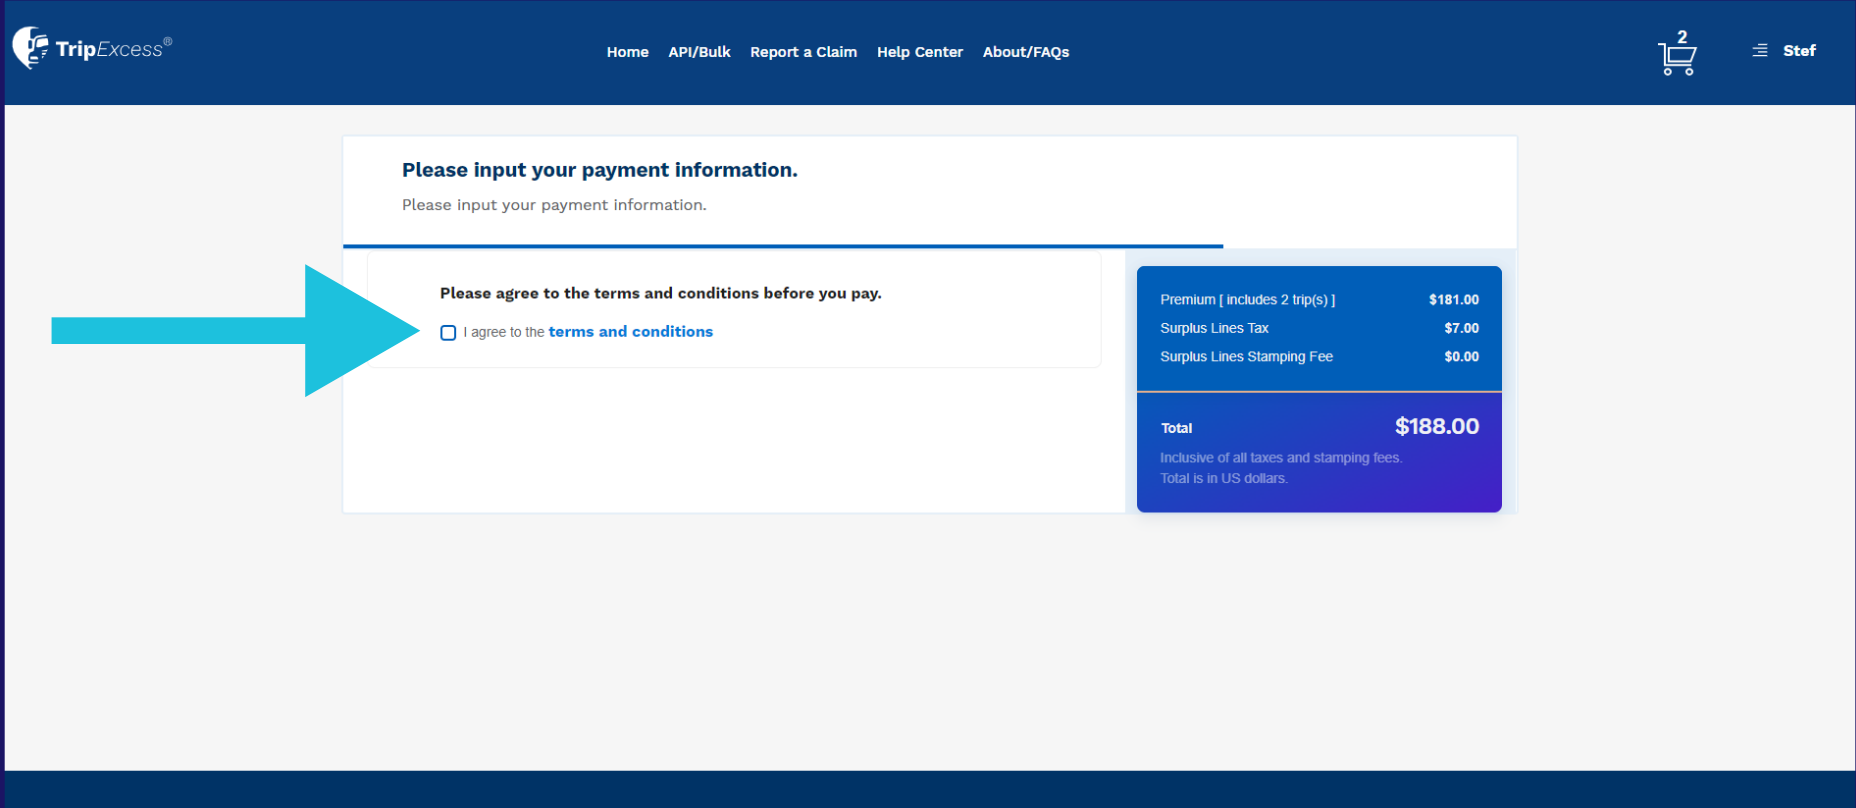

At the bottom of the scrollable area, there is a large blue button labeled 'Accept and Proceed to Checkout'. A large cyan arrow points from the left towards this button.

To the right of the scrollable area is a checkout summary box. It contains the following items:

Premium [ includes 2 trip(s) ]	$181.00
Surplus Lines Tax	$7.00
Surplus Lines Stamping Fee	$0.00
Total	$188.00

Below the summary, it states: 'Inclusive of all taxes and stamping fees. Total is in US dollars.' At the bottom of the summary box is a button with a left-pointing arrow and the text 'Back'.
